Class History

Freshmen: September 1954-55

We entered High School in 1954 with 65 members in our class. The first event was the election of class officers: President, Raymond LeBlanc; Vice-President, Albert Pincince; Secretary, Brenda Canestrari; Treasurer, Anne McLaughlin; Student Council, Jean Dalpe and Alfred Grenier; Advisor, Mr. William Conlan. Then came the day of initiation, we were all rewarded at the Freshmen Acquaintance dance held by the Seniors that night. We, the freshmen, then held our very own dance which started our treasury growing for our all important Washington Trip.

We then had our class trip to Nantasket, where a good time was had by all. One year passed, a Senior class gone, but an advance by our class.

Sophomore: September 1955-56

When we all returned in the Fall, we found that a few of our old classmates were missing, but we were joined by a few others to make our class strong. We again had elections of class officers: President, Theodore Graves; Vice-President, Raymond Cloutier; Treasurer, Claire Belanger; Secretary, Jean Dalpe; Student Council, Pauline Gladu and Donald Godin; Advisor, Mr. Jeremiah Kellett. This year we were allowed to hold two events. Our Sophomore Banquet was held at the Embassy Club, and every one had a wonderful time. Then came our Thanksgiving dance. That made our treasury grow even more.

Then came another class trip, another year completed, another Senior class gone, another step forward by our class.

Juniors: September 1956-57

In our Junior year, we had a large number of students, one of the largest classes yet. This year again, we held elections of class officers: President, Albert Pincince, Vice-President, Theodore Graves; Secretary, Constance Trottier; Treasurer, Claire Belanger; Student Council, Claudette Dauphin and Normand Trudeau; Class Advisor, Mr. Jeremiah Kellett.

We held our Halloween dance; it was a great success. We also selected and received our class rings.

Early in April, we started making preparations for the big event, our Prom. Soliciting and decorating was greatly enjoyed. The weather helped to make it successful. Our Prom colors were orchid, pink, and green. We danced to the music of Gene King's Orchestra and our theme song was "Almost Paradise." Our Prom king was Raymond Cloutier, and our Prom queen was Priscilla Goryl.

The next event, and the last of the year, was the trip to Nantasket. Everything was at an end for that year and our hardest year was to begin.

During the summer we held a few activities sponsored by our Senior Club. These were held to help us raise money for our long awaited Washington Trip.

Senior: September 1957-58

At the beginning of the year we chose class officers immediately so that we could begin our activities for the year. The officers chosen were: President, Albert Pincince; Vice-President, Brenda Canestrari; Treasurer, Claire Belanger; Secretary, Jean Dalpe; Student Council, Jeannette Belanger and Robert Tessier; Class Advisor, Mr. James Keough.

We were glad to be the first class to welcome instead of initiating the Freshmen into our school. That night we held a dance in their honor. We all had a good time. Our second big event of the year was our Christmas dance. We had a club plan to help us raise some money. Our raffle was the last means to help us raise more needed money for our trip. It was a success due to the aid of the townspeople's generosity. We had begun working on the yearbook in January. Albert Pincince was elected Editor-in-Chief of the Yearbook Staff. The yearbook was quite a task but we finally completed it at the last minute.

We have just finished re-living all these four years in just a few hours. Last night we enjoyed ourselves at our Senior Banquet; today is our class day, and tomorrow is our last class trip to Nantasket. Thursday evening is graduation with all its tears and smiles. Last, but probably the most remembered, will be the last formal of our high school years, the Commencement Ball, with its beautiful colors and dreamy music.

We enjoyed every minute of every year that we have had. The work that we did have to do was well-worth the trouble. We also appreciate all the aid and co-operation of the people of the town, faculty of the high school, and all that the students gave us in order to make these four years a memorable one to each and every one of us.

Class Will

We, the class of 1958 being of unsound mind and broken body, do hereby declare this to be our first and last will and testament.

To Mr. Rowe, we leave a red scooter as a modern means of transportation to communicate between schools.

To Mr. Collins, we leave a bookstand to use in Psychology class with a new Psychology book.

To Mr. Keough, we leave a gavel in order to keep peace and quiet at his future class meetings.

To Miss O'Neil, we leave a lasso in order to help round up her Senior Cowboys.

To Mr. Niedzwiadek, we leave a phonograph record with the lyrics, "Turn-Turn-Turn", taken from the great motion picture "Around The Wheel In Eighty Turns."

To Miss Murphy, we leave a season's pass to the "Girls' Room", to help her find her missing students.

To Mrs. Kelly, we leave a spotlight in order to help her find her way through the dark-bottomless pit, which she calls her pocketbook.

To Mr. Flynn, we leave a ticket to the moon so that he can coach the all-star basketball team.

To Mr. Trudeau, we leave a little bag of gold to pay for his and his students' snacks.

To Mr. Conlan, we leave a book on R-A-I-S-I-N children. We hope you enjoy it.

To Mr. Stevens, we leave a bottle of dye in order to get rid of the gray hair we gave him.

To Mr. Constine, we leave a bubbler in Miss O'Neil's room so that he will be able to do two things at once.

To Mr. Godin, we leave a ladder in order to help him reach any accumulated articles on the backboard.

Richard Ambler leaves all his lumber to all tooth-pick fans.

Rachel Beauregard leaves to Arlene Gaboury a bottle of "Temper Preventor", so that their little quarrels will never lead to anything. Hope you don't run out.

1611467

Claire Belanger leaves to next year's senior treasurer the remains of their tattered and worn dues book, and the job of chasing after seniors for back dues.

Jeannette Belanger leaves to any underclassman the ability to hook a sailor. "Make sure you have a heavy anchor."

Raymond Borowski leaves to "Norby" Martel a set of keys for his bicycle, so that he can learn how to drive. "Happy Landings?"

Carolyn Bruce leaves to all future driving students a book on "How to Strip the Gears."

Brenda Canestrari leaves to Irene Purich a pair of steady heels to help her walk down that long aisle on graduation day.

Joan Caron leaves her laryngitis and bottle of linament to all future cheerleaders.

Carol Chilson leaves a pair of stilts to all short girls who just never seem to reach that mirror.

Raymond Cloutier leaves the ability to get along with Commercial Course girls. It wasn't easy, was it "Ray?"

Norma Cook leaves her short, blond hair to Marcia Joseph.

Florence Couture leaves to Joan Daley and Barbara Eldridge the run of the Cafeteria and the right to argue with the teachers.

Janet Cramb leaves her reserved seat on the A.A. bus, and with it she includes a few friends.

Diana Crooks leaves to next year's lab students a book with 3 easy lessons on "How to get out of 'lab' early." Last lesson contains this encouraging word "Q-U-I-T."

Jean Dalpe leaves to any other underclassman her mischievous ways, so that this school will never have to look ordinary and dull.

Claudette Dauphin leaves to any future senior girl her typing skill. With it she includes a few worn-out erasers.

Fred Fielder leaves to all his followers his car so they won't be lost when next year comes around.

Pauline Gladu leaves her lunch box in case any underclassman gets hungry. This small lunch includes the A.&P. Super Market.

Barbara Glockner leaves her feathered earrings to anyone who has a bald parakeet.

Priscilla Goryl leaves to any future senior girl her record books of Cash Receipts for the Grace Holmes' Club Plan. Along with this she leaves a pamphlet entitled "How to Earn E-A-S-S-Y Money in Ten L-O-N-G weeks."

Donnie Godin leaves his beat-up map of Massachusetts to all wandering freshmen.

Ted Graves leaves to Bob Conte an oxygen tank, in order for him to get used to the thin air.

Lorraine Guimelli leaves a reward to any underclassman who finds her lost and treasured articles. "Hope that you can carry the load."

Natalie Houseman leaves a special buzzer to all future "Driver Ed" students in order to remind them when the hand brake is on. Natalie was always saying that she never traveled much.

Jane Lambert leaves to any future A.A. member the ability to sell tickets and miss all the games.

Louise Lanowy leaves to anyone who likes interesting articles, her pocket-books, which leave quite an interesting trail of beaus. "Quite a collection, huh, 'Lou'?"

Raymond Lefebvre leaves a book entitled "How to Get Along With Teachers" to Victor Brodeur. Let's hope he can find time to read it.

Carol Lemon leaves a pair of broken scissors, to any underclassman who has long hair. "Don't touch them!"

Dorothy Lewinsky leaves to any future senior girl a book entitled "Shortcuts in Shorthand", IF ANY!

Lucille Millette leaves her reserved seat at the New Moon which includes her favorite snack of dynamite pizza and a gallon of water. She always gets a B-A-N-G out of this.

Bob McDonnell leaves to any "air-fiend" his beat-up convertible with the torn top.

Judy Nason leaves her happy-go-lucky ways to any future senior.

Wallace Neely leaves his musical horn to all lone wolves.

Charlie Olbrys leaves a musical nose to anybody who likes a "Honky-Tonk Tune."

Albert Pincince leaves one picture postcard of the "What, me worry kid?" to anyone occupying locker 99 next year.

Alan Roy leaves to any future senior the right to cut across aisles and to stop at his or her locker without permission from any dummy whatsoever.

Clemence St. Germain leaves her quietness to Margie Spear.
Let's hope she doesn't wear it out in one minute.

Sheila Thayer leaves to "Connie" Godin her ability to get UP in the world—height-wise, of course!

Connie Trottier leaves her shortness and pep to anyone who has trouble finding guys at a reasonable height. With this combination you just can't miss, or can you?

Normand Trudeau and Bob Tessier leave their locker to Bob Sears and Andy Matott, also included are their left-over lunch bags.

Ray LeBlanc.....JUST LEAVES.

Class Song

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS,
When we were all together,
As a happy class,
The memories that were made and shared,
For many years will last.

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS,
That were exciting yet,
So very quickly past,
If we could only have one wish,
We'd make them last and last.

Our first years at B.H.S.,
They were such fun,
Finally came the greatest day
Now, we were "The One".

We'll find happiness,
Above the thrills and joys,
Of things that we like best,
We'll never ever let them fade away,
Our HIGH SCHOOL DAYS.

Class Trip

Time: 6:45 A.M.

Date: April 21, 1958

Place: B. H. S.

Destination: Washington & New York

There was plenty of excitement buzzing around the high school that morning. Why? Because everyone was waiting impatiently for our three chaperones to arrive. Mr. Keough had our baggage tickets so we didn't want to leave him behind. We loaded the bus which headed for Providence. After waiting to board the train, we were finally on our way. It was a long ride to Grand Central Station and a short walk over to the B. & O. Terminal where the bus was waiting to take us to New Jersey to take the train to Washington. We arrived in Washington with the rain and thunder to greet us. We walked from the station to the Carlyle Hotel. Here, our rooms were assigned and we unpacked. This was our first free evening.

Tuesday at 6:30 it was rise and shine for a big day ahead of us. First we took a bus to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. Here we saw more money than one could believe possible. Thirty-two million dollars a day is printed. Next we headed for the Smithsonian Institute where we saw every thing from the huge dinosaurs to "you name it"!

Our next visit was the Washington Monument. Those 898 steps were a long hike for those who walked up, but coming down we thought we would never reach the bottom. Back to the hotel for lunch. After lunch we walked to the Capital and the Congressional Library. For dinner we went to the Casino Royal where we saw and heard Jerry Vale.

Wednesday after breakfast we boarded a special motor-coach which took us to the home of George Washington, Mount Vernon. We stopped en route at the Iwo Jima Monument and, at Arlington Cemetery, saw the Changing of the Guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. We had our lunch in Maryland and boarded the bus once again to go to the Monastery and the Washington Cathedral. We returned to the hotel to have dinner and the rest of the evening free. Many went sight seeing at the Capital, others swimming, and still others to a baseball game.

Thursday morning after breakfast we left Washington, with suitcases in hand, headed for New York. On the way to the B & O we stopped at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis. We had lunch at the Oriol Restaurant in Baltimore.

After lunch we headed for Saint Paul Station to board the B & O. As usual the train was late. To pass the time away we had some pretty good card games.

We arrived in New York about 6 o'clock p.m. Our hotel here was the Shelton Towers. Rooms were assigned. After putting our luggage in our rooms we met in the lobby to go to Child's for dinner. We had a free evening that night. Some of us walked around Time Square while others stayed at the hotel to unpack.

Friday we could sleep a little later. At 7 o'clock we were called. After breakfast we walked to Radio City Music Hall where we saw "Marjorie Morningstar" with Natalie Wood and Gene Kelly.

We had lunch at Child's on 5th Avenue. After lunch we walked to the Empire State Building which is 102 stories high.

After that we had the rest of the afternoon free. At 6:45 p.m. we left for the Village Barn in Greenwich Village. Dinner, dancing, and a floor show were provided. After the Village Barn we were free for the evening. Six daring students, Bren, Lorri, Pris, Tess, Ray, and Putts went for an exciting ride through Central Park, down 5th Avenue. to the front entrance of our hotel in a horse-drawn buggy.

Saturday morning after breakfast we took a three-hour yacht trip around Manhattan Island. We had lunch at Child's. At 3 o'clock we were ready to check out of the hotel.

We boarded a bus which took us to Grand Central. Here we waited until 5 o'clock for our train to leave. We had a fine trip homeward on the train. We arrived in Providence at 8:21 p.m. and took a special bus to good-old Bellingham. We arrived here at 9:15 p.m.

We wish to extend our appreciation to Miss O'Neil, Miss Murphy, and Mr. Keough for making our trip the most enjoyable event during our four years at Bellingham High School and hope the next year's Seniors will enjoy theirs at least "half" as much as we did!

Class Prophecy

Time-June'19, 1968

Place-Bellingham Cinema Ballroom

Occasion-Reunion of the Class of '58

- Connie: Gee! Doesn't it seem fantastic that already ten years have passed since we were a group of fun-loving Seniors without a care in the world?
- Lorraine: It certainly does and to think in a matter of minutes we will unite once again.
- Connie: I wonder just how many of our classmates we will be able to recognize.
- Lorraine: I don't know, but we shall soon find out for here comes one of them now. I think it's Claudette... Claudette Dauphin.
- Connie: You're right; it is she. She's not at all the way I pictured her. After all who would ever think a professional tennis player could ever look so stunning.
- Lorraine: I know, Connie, but some people have all the luck. Speaking of luck, Albert Pincince never needed any with the head that he had.
- Connie: For a student who almost wrecked the Chemistry room one day with his crazy-mixed-up experiments, he is known one of the most famous chemists.
- Lorraine: Here comes Priscilla Goryl, one of the foremost designers in the fashion world.
- Connie: Lorraine, that fellow talking to her looks like..
- Lorraine: Oh Connie! That's Teddy Graves. You must remember him in our last year of high school, when we won the Class E Championship. He's taking over the position of high school coach since Mr. Flynn took over the position of Assistant Principal.
- Connie: Well, if it isn't Joan Caron and Natalie Houseman. Did you know that they were still working hand in hand in the "Stitch - em - up - Good Hospital" in Bellingham under the direction of the head nurse, Carolyn Bruce?
- Lorraine: That's right, and Carolyn is under the supervision of Dr. Robert Tessier, a major surgeon in the same hospital.
- Connie: Oh there's a beautiful sports car pulling up! Who do you suppose is in it? It looks like Donnie Godin, Jane Lambert, and Bob McDonnell. Jane is noted as a Sports Car Dealer who is always giving her customers a good ride. She handles all of Donnie's creations, and Bob is her top mechanic. That car is a very good example of Donnie's work.
- Lorraine: Speaking of good work, did you read about Ray Lefebvre in the paper last week? He just came back from Daytona Beach, Florida where he won the All-American Motorcycle race.
- Connie: Yes, I read about it in the Cherry Times. Speaking of the Times, isn't that Normand Trudeau that just walked in?

Lorraine: Yes, that's he. He's the Editor-in-Chief of the Times. He always was one for publicizing things.
 Connie: Her come Sheila Thayer and Brenda Canestrari. They also just returned from Paris with Priscilla. They surely do a good job of modeling the wonderful fashions that Priscilla designs.
 Lorraine: Well, here come two very familiar faces, Barbara Glockner and Judy Nason. Barbara just came back aboard the Bellingham Jet 100 from Africa.
 Connie: Then Judy must have flown in with her because the last I heard she was leading Ray Borowski on a Big Game Hunt in the Northern portion of the continent. Here comes Ray now.
 Lorraine: He was Big Game Hunting for Lions, but only got the cubs. I hope he doesn't worry too much. They'll grow up.
 Connie: That's Dick Ambler over there, isn't it?
 Lorraine: Yes, the one with Lucille Millette, Dick has become a very important engineer in the field of Guided Missiles, and Lou, his private secretary is always with him.
 Connie: That's right too; I remember reading about that just a few days ago. They just sent another Guided Missile up to the moon with a dog in it which was not approved by Florence Couture.
 Lorraine: Yes, since Florence became head of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to animals, people will think twice before they send another animal out into space without her consent.
 Connie: There's Carol Lemon over there! She hasn't changed a bit. Did you know she was a Veterinarian at the "Poundville Hospital"? She has done remarkably well for herself.
 Lorraine: There's Dorothy Lewinsky, who use to be very good in Shorthand and Typing. Now she is putting both of them to very good use as a court stenographer under the direction of Judge Wallace Neely. He would surely be lost without her help.
 Connie: Did you know that Ray LeBlanc owns his own radio studio now in Bellingham? The call letters are W.B.H.S. He always use to be good at spinning records at all our dances and during lunch time, too.
 Lorraine: I always thought he wanted to be a teacher. Speaking of teachers, Diana Crooks and Clemence St. Germain just walked in. They are both teaching at B.H.S. now, and they say it's just like it was before.
 Connie: Did you see Norma Cook? I thought I saw her come in, but I wasn't sure.
 Lorraine: Yes, she's here along with Jeannette Belanger. They are both telephone operators in the Bellingham Tel. & Tel. The experience we all had in our senior year must have helped them in their present positions.
 Connie: That's Alan Roy over there, isn't it? He certainly has come a long way from composing our Class Song to writing "Top Tunes of '68."

79411467

Lorraine: Alan sure has what it takes. Isn't that Carol Chilson with him? She has also become very famous as an artist. She just came back from Washington where she completed her third portrait of the president.

Connie: Oh, look who's here! It's Jean Dalpe and Claire Belanger. Jean has become world famous as a psychiatrist and Claire has become Vice-President of the Bellingham Savings Bank.

Lorraine: After three years of handling our class money, it must have helped her get where she is today.

Connie: Isn't that Charles Olbrys? He's become noted as the King of Calypso. Since he owns his own band, he is really well-known.

Lorraine: And there's the King of Kings now, Ray Cloutier, better know as "Romano Ray" to his audiences. His latest picture "Lost Rockets" will premiere some-times next month in Russia.

Connie: Lorraine, isn't that Janet Cramb? I understand she swam the English Channel for the sixth consecutive time, last week, breaking all past records.

Lorraine: Remember Louise Lanowy? She owns her own Hat shop in France which she calls "The House of Feathers".

Connie: Rachel Beauregard also owns her own shop, but hers is a little different. Liking small things she opened a "Tops & Toddlers" store, for her own pleasure, in Birmingham, Alaska. Let me see are we all here?

Lorraine: No, there is still one more guest to arrive. First of all though, Connie, tell me just what you have been doing with yourself.

Connie: Well, you know just how much I always wanted to be a Dentist. Now I have my own office with Pauline Gladu as my receptionist. What about you Lorraine?

Lorraine: I always did like to re-arrange furniture at home, along with color schemes, so I am now in business for myself. I call my business "Lorry's Interior Decorating".
Say, look who just came in the door! It's Freddy Fielder.

Connie: He was just appointed President of the "Stop and Shop in Medfield.

Lorraine: Their home office is now in Bellingham.

Connie: Well, we have all progressed so well in the last ten years; let us all hope that ten years from today we shall have attained even greater success and fulfilled all our goals.

Champions

The 1957 Bellingham High School Cross Country team won the Massachusetts Class D and the South Central Massachusetts Cross-Country League Championships for the second year in a row. The Hawks, led by Captain Ted Graves and Arthur Jarrett who broke records nearly every time he ran, compiled an excellent record of 7 wins and a second place finish in the Knights of Columbus Race. With only two of his top ten runners graduating, Coach Flynn should have another very successful season.

By Ted Graves

Basketball

Led by Co-Captains Ted Graves and Norm Trudeau, the "57-58" Blackhawks smashed every Bellingham High School Basketball record existing. Among these records were:

Most points scored in a season	1816
Most consecutive victories	18
Most points in a game	109
Most points in varsity career by individual (Ted Graves)	1165
Highest team scoring average	69.8
Most points in one year by individual (Ted Graves)	606
Most points in one game by individual (Ted Graves)	41
Norm Trudeau also established an individual rebounding record by pulling in 382 rebounds.

The Hawks

The Hawks have an unbelievable record of 24 wins and 2 losses including the Tri-County League Championship and the Bay State Class E Tournament. With Andy Matott, Lloyd Leveille, Ronnie Bonollo, Greg Tremba, Ralph Nason, and others returning.

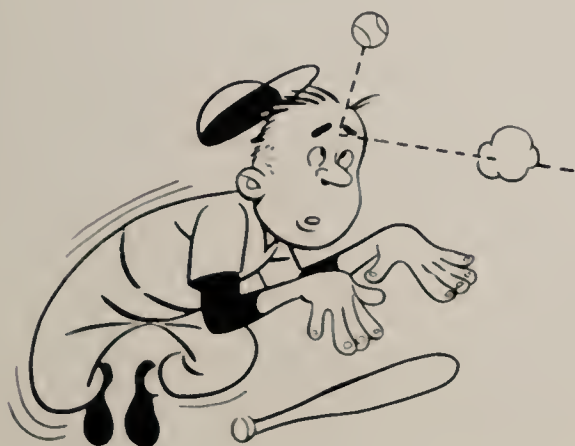

By Ted Graves

Baseball

With many veterans returning, Coach Flynn and his squad of 1958 are hoping for another successful season. Last year's successful team won the Tri-County championship and had a season's record of 15 wins and 1 loss. This year the team will be led by Co-Captains Bob Tessier and Ted Graves.
